Gentlemen

I should be glad to receive a catalogue showing the price you require for gold coins? Years ago Scott's had such a Catalogue but I do not know what has become of—my copy. Do you purchase gold coins? A lady friend of mine has a $5 gold piece—U. S. A. 13 Stars— Liberty head flowing hair— in excellent Condition— The trouble is in cases of this kind they think they are possessed of a treasure whereas perhaps the coin may not be worth more than its face value.

Yours Sincerely

Gentlemen,

Your letter received and I handed it to the lady who wishes to dispose of the £5 gold pieces. She will write to you. The date was 1800.

I am not collecting coins now but would like to know if you have a double guinea for sale or a £2 piece of Queen Anne IV. If you will kindly let me know what price you ask. If you have not those mentioned have you - an India Gold Mohur - or a £2 piece of any reign prior to Victoria. or a Greek Tetradrachm in good condition.

Yours faithfully,

Chas. N. Bedard
